acknowledged on Tuesday the delayed disclosure of the meltdowns at three reactors was tantamount to a cover-up and apologised for it.
 Tokyo Electric Power Co. President Naoto Hirose's apology followed the revelation last week that an investigation had found Hirose's predecessor instructed officials during the 2011 disaster to avoid using the word "meltdown". "I would say it was a cover-up," Hirose told a news conference. AP warning shots at a group of foreign vessels allegedly fishing illegally and detained a Chinese-flagged boat and seven crew. China protested after the clash and said one fisherman was injured. Jakarta has said none of the detained crew were hurt.

 The commander of the Indonesian navy's western fleet said he suspected the incursions were "structured", indicating the Chinese Government had "given its blessing".
